Cotton Ferox "Defragmental" (etd0002) CD is a collection of unreleased tracks, remixes and contributions to compilations.

The Swedish duo of Carl Abrahamsson and Thomas Tibert already created groundbreaking music together in White Stains (1987-1994). After a six-year break they started producing again in 2000 and have since made two albums, "First Time Hurts" (2002) and "Wordship" (2004, with Genesis P-Orridge). They have also created a number of tracks for compilations, films and installations. This album presents a spectacular overview of the lesser known work of Sweden's finest experimental musicians.

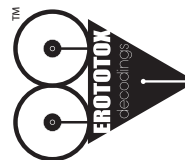

Noteable info about this CD: There are four re-mixes of the song "Phantasmoplasm" (from their first album), all by highly renowned Swedish DJs and producers. The Norwegian cult noise duo Fe-mail have created a strong remix of "Deep in the night" (also from the first album). There are also two different cooperations with Genesis P- Orridge, one 7" released on Important Records and one track for a Czech compilation.
