X A M B U C A "Gestalt Screams From Imaginary People" (etd 0004) is the debut release from San Francisco sonic dadaists. This four track EP CDR was actually the first release in the EROTOTOX DECODINGS catalog but room was given to White Stairs and Cotton Ferrox for etd 0001 and 0002. Inspired by the likes of Nurse With Wound and Tristan Tzara, X A M B U C A document concrete convolution that redefines low-fi.

X A M B U C A was a project started by Chandra Shukla, a visual/graphic artist that had previously played in many other well known projects, though always longed to put out his own material with his friend Larry Thrasher as many different projects. "Gestalt Screams..." is nothing more than Shukla experimenting and realizing that the format of X A M B U C A would from there on out be ever changing, as it has been since this modest and primitive release was released. Most of the sounds found on "Gestalt" were sounds acquired by Shukla while working in the California mental health care system, hence, obscured in the process...of course.
